LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(o.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(p.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(q.) To buy or otherwise acquire, issue, place, sell, or otherwise deal in stocks, shares, bonds, debentures, and securities of all kinds, and to give any guarantee or security in relation thereto or otherwise:

(r.) To draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, bills of lading, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities:

(s.) To invest its money, and generally to lend and advance its money to any persons or companies without security, or upon such securities and terms and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient, and to guarantee the performance of any contract by any person or company:

(t.) Generally to engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals:

(u.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company's business:

(v.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present and future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to issue debentures and debenture stock, mortgage debentures, and mortgage debenture stock, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable:

(w.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, and for such purpose to distinguish and separate capital from profits, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(x.) To procure the Company to be registered, incorporated, or otherwise duly constituted or recognized, if necessary or advisable, according to the law of the United Kingdom or of any other Dominion, State, Province, Territory, or Dependency, or of any foreign country:

(y.) To enter into any arrangements or contracts with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(z.) To obtain any provisional order, ordinance, or Act of Parliament, or any Act or ordinance of or grant or licence from any foreign or other Government, State Legislature, or department, or municipality for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(aa.) To appoint from time to time, either with full or restricted powers of sub-delegation, and either with or without remuneration, agents, attorneys, local or managing directors, or other persons or corporations under power of attorney or otherwise within or outside British Columbia, and for the purpose of carrying out and completing all or any of the objects of the Company as mentioned in this memorandum of association, and of arranging, conducting, or managing the business or businesses of the Company, or any matter of concern whatsoever in which the Company is now or may from time to time be or become or be about to become interested or concerned, with the same or more limited powers than the directors of the Company have, and to delegate such powers of appointment to any person or persons, company or corporation, and from time to time revoke and cancel all or any such appointments or delegations, and to remove any person or corporation appointed thereunder:

(bb.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(cc.) To transfer to or otherwise cause to be vested in any company or person or persons all or any of the lands or properties of the Company, to be held in trust for the Company, or on such trusts for working, developing, or disposing of the same as may be considered expedient:

(dd.) To pay the costs, charges, and expenses preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment, and registration of the Company, and to remunerate by commission, brokerage, granting of options of taking up shares of the Company, or otherwise, any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in relation to the formation and establishment of the Company or the conduct of its business, or placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any shares in or debentures or other securities of the Company:

(ee.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(ff.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause when not applied to this Company shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons political, mercantile, or otherwise, whether incorporated or not incorporated, whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and whether existing or hereafter to be formed:

(gg.) Nothing contained in this memorandum shall be deemed to give the Company power to do anything which is prohibited by section 18 of the "Companies Act," or to carry on any business to which the said Act does not apply.

(c.) To advance and lend money on assets of all kinds upon such terms as may be arranged:

(d.) From time to time to invest and reinvest the moneys of the Company in any such securities as aforesaid, and to buy, sell, vary, and transpose any such investments:

(e.) For the greater security of any investment or prospective investment of the Company:—

(1.) To take part in the formation, management, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking, and for that purpose to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(2.) To employ experts to investigate and examine into the condition, prospects, value, character, and circumstances of any business concerns and undertakings, and generally of any assets, property, or rights:

(f.) For investment to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire and hold any real and personal property:

(g.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(h.) And generally to invest the moneys of the Company in such investments and in such manner as an individual investor might do: Provided that nothing in this subclause, in the preceding subclauses of this paragraph, or in the ancillary powers conferred by section 22 of the "Companies Act" shall be construed so as to confer upon the Company the power to engage in any active business, save only the investment of its capital and surplus moneys as hereinbefore provided:

(i.) Subject to the proviso contained in subclause (h) hereof, each subclause of this paragraph shall be deemed to be an independent main object and in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or the name of the Company.
